REGISTRATION

The Standards of excellence Seminar is open to all regardless of membership status. Registration opens June 1, 2022. Registration closes September 15, 2022. Registration is limited to 150 people—a wait list will be created if registration passes 150. Online registration is available and encouraged via the Guild website: www.guildofbookworkers.org.

All questions regarding registration payments should be directed to Larry Houston, GBW Treasurer (treasurer@guildofbookworkers.org). Other questions regarding the Seminar should be directed to Jennifer Pellecchia, Standards Chair (standards@guildofbookworkers.org).

All events will occur at the Courtyard Atlanta Decatur Downtown/Emory Hotel, except the Area Tours and the Opening Reception. The Program Packet will contain all necessary information regarding locations of events, timing and scheduling, as well as information on local sites, restaurant recommendations and more.

OPENING RECEPTION

The Robert C. Williams Museum of Papermaking, 500 10th St NW, Atlanta, GA 30332

The Seminar officially begins with the Opening Reception on Thursday evening, from 5:30 to 7:30 PM. Beer, wine, soft drinks and light snacks will be served.

Founded by Dard Hunter at MIT in the 1930s and now part of Georgia Tech, the mission of the Museum is to collect, preserve, increase and disseminate knowledge about papermaking — past, present and future. It features collections on the history of paper and paper technology and a remarkable collection of over 10,000 watermarks, papers, tools, machines, and manuscripts.

Buses will leave the hotel beginning at 5:00pm and circle between RCW and the Courtyard.

THE CITY OF ATLANTA

Atlantans are rightfully proud of their vibrant, international city that retains much of its Southern twang. Burned to the ground by Sherman in the Civil War, Atlanta reimagined and rebuilt itself to become a business and cultural center, with a wildly diverse population that flavors every experience.

Our local hosts have planned several tours, but there are many additional attractions in the city. As a center for the Civil Rights Movement, it is the only city in the nation where you can view two Nobel Peace Prizes – one at the Martin Luther King Center and the other in the Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum. The powerful National Center for Civil and Human Rights is located in the same block as the World of Coca-Cola attraction, the Georgia Aquarium (world's largest), and the CNN Center. This is truly a city for everyone, so come on down and stay awhile!
